4. GENERAL TERMS THAT APPLY TO COMPILED PROGRAMS AND REDISTRIBUTABLES

– Customer may write and compile (including byte-code compile) its own software application programs using the Licensed Software, including any libraries and source code included for such purpose with the Licensed Software. Customer may reproduce and distribute programs which Customer creates using the Licensed Software without additional license or fees, subject to all of the conditions in the Agreement. Embarcadero products may include Redistributables intended for distribution by Customer to the users of software programs created by Customer. Redistributables include, for example, those files identified in the accompanying printed or on-line documentation as redistributable files or those files preselected for deployment by an install utility provided with the Software (if any). In any event, the Redistributables for the Software are only those files specifically designated as such by Embarcadero. From time to time, Embarcadero may designate other files as Redistributables. Customer should refer to the documentation, including any "readme" or "deploy" files included with the Software, for additional information. Subject to all of the conditions in this License Agreement, Customer may reproduce and distribute exact copies of the Redistributables, provided that such copies are made from the original copy of the Software or the copy transferred to the single hard disk. Copies of Redistributables may only be distributed with and for the sole purpose of executing application programs permitted under this Agreement that Customer has created using the Licensed Software. Under no circumstances may any copies of Redistributables be distributed separately. Regardless of any modifications which Customer makes and regardless of how Customer might compile, link, and/or package Customer programs, under no circumstances may the libraries (including runtime libraries), code, Redistributables, and/or other files of the Licensed Software (including any portions thereof) be used for developing programs by anyone other than Customer. Only Customer as the licensed user (or the Named User) has the right to use the libraries (including runtime libraries), code, Redistributables, or other files of the Licensed Software (or any portions thereof) for developing programs created with the Software. In particular, Customer may not share copies of the Redistributables with other co-developers. Customer may not reproduce or distribute any Embarcadero documentation without Embarcadero's permission. The license granted in this Agreement for Customer to create compiled programs and distribute Customer programs and the Redistributables (if any) is subject to all of the following conditions: (i) all copies of the programs created by Customer must bear a valid copyright notice, either Customer's or Embarcadero's copyright notice that appears on the Licensed Software; (ii) Customer may not remove or alter any Embarcadero copyright, trademark or other proprietary rights notice contained in any portion of Embarcadero libraries, source code, Redistributables or other files that bear such a notice; (iii) Embarcadero provides no warranty at all to Customer or any other person regarding the Licensed Software, and Customer will remain solely responsible to anyone receiving Customer's programs for support, service, upgrades, or technical or other assistance, and such recipients will have no right to contact Embarcadero for such services or assistance; (iv) Customer will indemnify and hold Embarcadero, its related companies and its suppliers, harmless from and against any claims or liabilities arising out of the use, reproduction or distribution of Customer programs; (v) Customer programs must be written using a licensed, registered copy of the Licensed Software; (vi) Customer programs must add primary and substantial functionality, and may not be merely a set or subset of any of the libraries (including runtime libraries), code, Redistributables or other files of the Software; (vii) regardless of any modifications which Customer make and regardless of how Customer might compile, link, or package your programs, the libraries (including runtime libraries), code, Redistributables, and/or other files of the Software (including any portions thereof) may not be used in programs created by your end users (i.e., users of your programs) and may not be further redistributed by Customer end users; and (viii) Customer may not use Embarcadero's or any of its suppliers' names, logos, or trademarks to market Customer programs, except to state that Customer program was written using the Licensed Software. Any license restrictions imposed by a third party vendor are in addition to, not in lieu of, the terms and conditions of the Agreement. All Embarcadero libraries, source code, Redistributables and other files remain Embarcadero's exclusive property. Regardless of any modifications that Customer may make, Customer may not distribute any files (particularly Embarcadero source code and other non-executable files) except those that Embarcadero has expressly designated as Redistributables. Nothing in the Agreement permits Customer to derive the source code of files that Embarcadero has provided to Customer in executable form only, or to reproduce, modify, use, or distribute the source code of such files. Source code that Customer generates with an Embarcadero source code generator, such as an Application Wizard, is considered by Embarcadero to be Customer code. Contact Embarcadero for the applicable royalties due and other licensing terms for all other uses and/or distribution of the Redistributables.
